NEWS AS PRINTED IN THE DAYS OF SCOTT AND CLAY.

A copy of the "Monmouth Inquirer," published in "Freehold, N. J., Thursday morning, September 2, 1847," is the property of Mr. Arthur Brown, the gentlemanly young artilleryman of Ft. Barrancas, whose romantic meeting with his mother, from whom he had been separated since infancy, attracted so much interest last summer.

The writer, who is indebted to Mr. Brown for a look at the valued relic, found the "Inquirer" so interesting historically and otherwise, that the following extracts from it are reprinted in The Journal in the belief that many others also will derive pleasure from their perusal and comparison with to-day. They are as follows:

"Terms.—The paper will be delivered to subscribers, within 30 miles of Freehold, (by mail route), free of postage, at $1.50, in advance—$1.75, within six months and $2.00 at the year's end.

"Beyond 30 miles (by mail route), free of postage, the terms will be $1.75 in advance, $2.00 within six months, and $2.25 at the year's end.

"No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the Publisher.

"Letters and communications to the Editor must be post-paid, to secure attention."

Under the head:—"A Ready Rule for Farmers.—A 'quarter of wheat' is an English measure of eight standard bushels—so if you see wheat quoted at 56 shillings it is 7 shillings a bushel. A shilling is 22½ cents; multiply by 7 and you have $1.57½ per bushel.

"In Kentucky corn is measured by the barrel, which is five bushels of shelled corn. At New Orleans a barrel of corn is a flour barrel full of ears. At Chicago lime is sold by the barrel, and measured in the smallest sized cask of that name that will pass muster. A barrel of flour is seven quarters of a gross hundred (112 pounds) which is the reason of its being of the odd measure of 196 pounds. A barrel of tar is 20 gallons, while a barrel of gunpowder is only a small keg holding 25 pounds, and that reminds me of cotton, a bale of which is 400 pounds, no matter in what sized bundle it may be sent to market."

"Whig Meetings" are called in twelve townships each at some individual's, thus: "In Howell at S. S. Allen's, upper Squamcum, in Plumstead at Miss Wallis, New Egypt," etc., followed by: "We hope our friends will send in for publication, the proceedings of the above meetings, 'I held.'"

"Messrs. Ritchie & Edie sent to the office of the Newark Daily, a cucumber 20 inches long and over 6 in circumference, which is the growth of six days from the blossom. This remarkable growth comes from their garden in that city, from seed recently received from England."

"The steamer Union, arrived at Havre, from New York, on the 7th inst., after a passage of 13½ days. The steamer Britannia, from Boston, arrived at Liverpool on the night of the 13th ult., in 13 days passage."

"The Wrong Man Hung.—The Albany Evening Journal says:—A young printer, named Boyington who served his time in the office of the New Haven Palladium, was hung a few years since in Alabama, upon a charge of having murdered a companion, with whom he was traveling. He protested his innocence to the last, but without avail. Recently, the landlord in whose house the murder was committed, confessed the crime on his deathbed! Boyington was a young man of fine talents and prepossessing appearance, whose guilt was deemed conclusive only from the fact that he was the last person seen with the murdered man."

"Here is a paragraph to 'dee-light' Mr. Roosevelt:—'Mr. Clay was received at Philip Reynolds's fine farm in Delaware, by an assemblage of the whole family circle of that old patriarch—comprising his sons and sons-in-law, their wives and children, being 64 in number. During the visit he named his place Lexington, in compliment to the guest."

"The last Union, in reference to some recent censures of Gen. Scott by a New York paper, says—'We are not prepared to condemn Gen. Scott's delay without hearing his own explanation.'"

The war correspondence is dated Richmond, Aug. 27, 1847, and quotes from "The Playmate's correspondent from the camp at the National Bridge, twenty-four miles from Vera Cruz, August 11th," whose name appears to be "Kendall," and gives the "news" that "The steamship Galveston has arrived at New Orleans with advices from Pueblo to the 6th of August, one week later than before received. Gen. Scott was still at Pueblo on the sixth, the army was to take up the line of march on the next day for the City of Mexico."

A resume of the news says:—"Gen. Twiggs Division was to leave on the seventh, Gen. Quitman's on the eighth, Gen. Worth's on the ninth, and Gen. Pillow's on the tenth."

"Col. Childs remains in command at Pueblo. Gen. Pierce arrived at Pueblo on the 6th; lost not a single man on the march notwithstanding another severe battle with the Guerrillas."

"The most agreeable news by this arrival is the escape of Major Gaines and Passed Midshipman Rogers from the City of Mexico and their safe arrival at Gen. Scott's headquarters."

"The letter mentions an affair between Capt. Ruff of the Rifles and the commander of a Guerrilla party, in which the latter was entirely routed."

"Mr. Kendall also writes of the death of Lieut. Hill of the Second Dragoons and Dr. Hammer of the South Carolina regiment."

By comparing the dates above it will be found that news of the war in the far east, is only half a century, instead of centuries behind the times, as charged.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.

The Foreign Missionary Society met Monday afternoon in the Palafox M. E. church to hold the annual election of officers as follows:

WITH MRS. ZELIUS.

The Excelsior Flinch Club met last evening with Mrs. A. E. Zelius, whose house was beautifully decorated with New Year mistletoe and bamboo. There were four tables of Flinch and Miss Florida Zelius scored.

Each guest received a souvenir in the form of a zephyr doll each "alf and alf" red and white, and the score cards were pretty New Year mementos.

The refreshments were oyster parties, beaten biscuit, olives, chocolate and whipped cream, Charlotte Russe and fruit cake.

The presence of Mrs. N. C. McMillan, the first time she has been out since her severe illness, was a source of pleasure as was that of Mrs. Matthews the special guest of the club.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. M. E. Bates.

RECEPTION TO NEW PASTOR.

The congregation of the Gadsden Street M. E. Church, will give a reception in the Epworth League rooms of the church this evening at 7 o'clock, to the new pastor and his wife, Rev. F. A. A cordial invitation is extended to all who will, to unite in making the acquaintance of the pastor and his family, and in personally giving them a welcome to their new home in Pensacola.

The Home Missionary Society of the Palafox M. E. church will meet this afternoon at 3:30.

AMUSEMENTS.

LAST NIGHT'S PLAY.

The Savoy Theatre Company presented last night Cumberland 61, the performance being entirely in keeping with their other ones during the week. Each member of the cast filled his or her part with grace and ease. Nothing was lacking in the way of costumes, scenery and properties and the presentation was acceptable in every way.

The bill to-night is a favorite with the company and a play in which the entire cast is especially well trained.

MABEL PAIGE.

Piquant, popular Mabel Paige and her own company will commence a six nights engagement here at the opera house on next Monday night. Miss Paige is heading her own company this season, which is by far the best that the South has ever before had the pleasure of seeing. Also having several cars of her own scenery, her productions are wonderfully improved.

In the way of specialties, Miss Paige has engaged some of the highest class artists now on the American stage. At every city where these artists have performed, the public and the press have been long and loud in their praises. Last but by no means least the moving pictures. Among the collection there is a film of over one fifth of a mile in length. This film gives a very vivid and thrilling illustration of a real Spanish bull fight.

Miss Paige's repertoire is new and will include: "The Little Stowaway," "Becky Bliss," "Faust" and many other high class productions.

Everywhere this season the press and the public have pronounced her success the greatest yet enjoyed. Gaining in popularity each season, and adding largely to her host of friends, the people seem never to tire of her coming. Favored with an excellent management she is prepared to make good her welcome here in Pensacola one of the strongholds of the South. Popular prices will prevail. Seats may be had at Coe's Book Store. Change of program every night.

of the visiting young ladies being present. Mrs. Max Klein was awarded the first prize and Mrs. Bernard Solomon the second, while Miss Frolichstein of Mobile, received the guest prize. After the game a delicious course luncheon was served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Louis Friedman.

The Misses Sharpe, daughter of the rector of St. Katharine, were the honorees at a pretty luncheon given Wednesday by Miss Katharine McCord Smith, who had invited a number of society girls to meet them. The decorations were attractive and the hostess entertained with her accustomed vivacious grace.

The annual election of officers of the Progress Club was held last night in the handsome apartments of that organization, and was attended by a large number of the members of the club. Those elected were as follows:
President—Dave Levy.
Vice-President—Philip Klein.
Secretary—Max J. Heinberg.
Treasurer—Dave Dannheisser.
Board of Governors—M. Jacoby, A. M. Cohen, B. M. Solomon, F. T. Levy, A. L. Rosenstein, O. Goldstucker, and B. L. Gunderschelm.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a symptom of some disease, and the disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructs the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the mold as well as the cough. For sale by all druggists.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

Dr. J. G. Heard has moved his dental office to rooms 2 and 4, Masonic Temple.

SALE A SUCCESS.

Judging from the surging crowds that attended the sacrifice sale of T. H. Lannon & Co., yesterday and day before, the sale will be a success. Prices have been slashed right and left, and a good, clean stock is being put on the market right in the heart of the season. Mr. Lannon informed a Journal representative yesterday that the sale was even better than he had expected. He is greatly impressed with Pensacola and expects to do a big dry goods business here all the year round.

COLUMBIA SAILS FOR NEW ORLEANS

LEFT AT 3 O'CLOCK YESTERDAY AFTERNOON TO BE DOCKED AT THAT PLACE.

The cruiser Columbia, which has been in this port for a number of weeks, sailed yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock for New Orleans, where she will go into the floating dock for a general overhauling and repair.

The vessel steamed down the bay at a fast clip, and within an hour after her departure from off the city, she was lost to sight and nothing but the thick black smoke was visible as she ploughed through the seas in the gulf at a twenty knot clip bound for her point of destination. The cruiser is one of the fastest vessels of the navy and it is expected that she will reach New Orleans to-morrow morning. She will not go into dock, however, until about January 12.

Before the Columbia was ready to start the commanding officer sent to the pilot office and requested that Pilot W. A. Bell be sent out to pilot the vessels across the bar. The pilot recently brought the vessel into port, and the commander naturally desired that he again be sent to handle the big cruiser.

From New Orleans the Columbia goes to Cuba, where she will engage in the annual maneuvers of the combined fleet and later return with the vessels to Pensacola.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at all drug stores; price 50c.
